WE STILL OFFER

Our home "Riverview" for sale. This property is not equalled in the state at the price that we offer it for. To any one wanting a home with every modern improvement, located superbly, with ample grounds surrounding it and at a price below cost, this is the golden chance.

We offer this property for sale solely because it is too large for us to occupy and our desire is to build a smaller one. If we can sell this within the next 15 days (before May 1st), we will do so on the easiest of terms. If not sold previous to May 1st we shall begin housekeeping in it and withdraw it from the market.

Yours very truly.
GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

For An Investment

We have a property centrally located, rented for $21 50 per month, payable in advance. It is sure to rent for this or more for all time. This is over eight and a half per cent, on the price we ask for it.

There is a mortgage of $1600 to run 3 or 5 years at seven per cent.

Our price is $3000; $1000 cash, $400 to be secured on the property ten years at seven per cent. Lets figure it out, it will take $140 a year to pay your interest on the $2000; taxes say $15; insurance $5. Take this amount $160 in all from the $258 rental and it leaves you $98 net for the use of your $1000. Besides this the property is sure to advance from $200 to $500 within 5 years. It is worth looking into.

Yours very truly,
GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Yesterday, April 13th

The masons began plastering our pretty little six room house. We expect to be able to deliver this house first week in May, all complete. We will sell it on the easiest of monthly payments with a cash not to exceed $200. In fact you can make terms with us that cannot be duplicated elsewhere. Let us show you this place.

Yours very truly,
GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

That Little Cottage

At $900; $100 cash; $500 mortgage, balance payable $5 00 per month, deferred payments, bearing interest at seven per cent is a little home somebody wants. Come and see us.

Yours very truly,
GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

LABOR'S FIGHT BEGUN.

Strike for the Eight-Hour Day Now on.

THOUSANDS OF TOILERS QUIT WORK.

Building Operations in Pittsburgh Sure to Be Suspended—In Most States the Miners Will Not Go Out—St. Louis to Have Trouble.

PITTSBURGH TAKES THE LEAD.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 1.—The Master Builders' association met Thursday night and decided positively not to grant the carpenters' demand for eight hours and an increase of five cents per hour. As decided upon by the carpenters 5,000 of them quit work Thursday night for their demands. The result will be that 10,000 men, comprising stone masons, roofers, marble cutters, planing-mill men, etc., will work on present contracts until they have gone as far as they can without the carpenters, when they will find themselves simply worked out of a job, not locked out. Reports from McKeesport, Braddock and other surrounding towns say carpenters generally are striking for eight hours, and indications point to the strike spreading rapidly.

The miners of the Pittsburgh division failed to come to any agreement in regard to their demand for an advance and will continue in session to-day. The operators' committee of five made public their decision to offer their miners the old rate of wages now in force. This proposition will be laid before the men to-day and it is thought will be accepted.

THE COKE WORKERS.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 1.—The operators are freely using their most powerful weapon to break the strike and are bringing carloads of men daily into the region. A complete resume of the situation shows twenty-four plants running under the sliding scale, embracing 2,567 ovens and 2,681 men.

WILL OHIO MINERS GO OUT?

COLUMBUS, O., May 1.—The determination of the executive board of the United Mine Workers and the presidents of the state organization at their meetings in this city the first of the week to defer the strike in the interest of the eight-hour labor day does not seem to have definitely settled the question even among the miners of Ohio. The operators have made a proposition to pay the present prices, seventy cents, for the Hocking valley with other districts on the usual graded scale for the state if the miners will concede the point in regard to the nine-hour day and leave that open so as to give the operators an opportunity to meet competitors. Some of the miner delegates to the state convention representing strong districts are disappointed over the action of the executive board of the united miners in postponing the strike for the eight-hour day. There is a much stronger sentiment in that direction than has been reported, but the national officers expect their course will be indorsed. There is nothing, however, to indicate that the miners in any field of the state will go out to-day and no other line of trade has made preparations in that direction, having been led to believe the miners would take the initiative.

WILL NOT STRIKE AT PEORIA.

PEORIA, Ill., May 1.—The miners' strike, for which dealers have been preparing for months, will not materialize to-day, at least so far as Peoria is concerned. There are 800 miners in this district and it is thought that not more than fifty men will quit work.

TWO THOUSAND MEN OUT OF WORK.

LA SALLE, Ill., May 1.—This morning all the coal shafts in this vicinity excepting the Whitebreast Fuel Company's mines at Ladd will shut down and 2,000 miners will be out of employment. It is understood there is no strike at present, but no contracts for the coming year have been made between operators and employes, and until these are effected no coal will be mined here.

IN THE SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1.—Notices have been posted at the various coal mines in this vicinity advising the miners not to go to work after to-day until advised to do so by the officers of the Miners' Federation. It will not be known positively until Monday whether or not a strike is on.

IOWA MINERS WILL NOT QUIT.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 1.—President Scott, of the Iowa District Mine Workers, is authority for the statement that Iowa miners will not go out to-day. The eight-hour day movement, he says, is not abandoned but only postponed.

WILL PROBABLY STRIKE AT ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—If the developments in the labor situation can be said to be a forerunner of what is to happen to-day one of the most serious strikes in the history of St. Louis is imminent. The men who will go out will number fully 5,000. The Carpenters' council has received a notice from the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners at Philadelphia warning the members to stay away from East St. Louis on and after May 1, as the prospective trouble is very imminent. The men, it seems, have been preparing for the trouble on the east side of the river, as well as in St. Louis proper. Their strength in East St. Louis is estimated at 700, which includes the workmen in several of the surrounding towns and villages. This matter has been kept very quiet, but it is understood in labor circles in this city that the bosses will this morning be presented with a demand that eight hours constitute a day's work at the old pay for ten hours.

The number of men who will go out here will number about 5,000, divided as follows: Carpenters, 2,100; marble cutters, 300; tinners, 750; inside wire men, 125; architectural ironworkers, 850; malsters (uncertain), 1,200; union stripers, 500.

BRAZIL MINERS WILL STRIKE.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 1.—The strike is on and 1,800 block-coal miners and 800 bituminous coal miners are out. The eight-hour demand seems not to affect the miners of this district so much as other questions. Last year the scale of prices was agreed upon to last until May 1, 1891, and the time having expired and no rate being established the miners will go out until such time as an agreement can be reached. This relates to block coal miners exclusively. Some days ago the operators in bituminous coal had a meeting at Terre Haute and agreed that a reduction for mining bituminous coal of ten cents on the ton should be made. The scale now is five cents a ton less than for mining block and if the operators adhere strictly to the Terre Haute scale it means a big and vigorous strike among the employes. In the Davies county coal field the miners, about 500 in number, have been out since Wednesday owing to the discharge of a mine boss.

EVANSVILLE WILL HAVE A STRIKE.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 1.—The collarmakers and harnessmakers will demand a nine-hour day, with no decrease in pay, and the miners of this neighborhood will demand an eight-hour day. Three hundred men are interested and will strike if the demand is not acceded to.

ONE STRIKE ENDED.

DETROIT, Mich., May 1.—Every department of the Michigan car shops is in operation and the strike is virtually over. During the day about 300 of the old hands applied for and were given work. By Saturday a full force will be at work.

PLUMBERS WANT EIGHT HOURS.

DULUTH, Minn., May 1. — The plumbers have decided to strike for the eight-hour day to-day. They also ask that they be required to work only seven hours Saturday. They demand the same wages they are now receiving for nine hours' work—namely, from $3.50 to $4. The employers claim that there is scarcely any work to do and a strike will not discommode them now.

IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The short-hour movement among organized labor begins to-day in this city as well as in nearly all other large cities. In most cases the employers have willingly conceded all that was asked of them. All eyes are centered upon the house smiths, who expect a big fight for eight hours. Should there be any general objection against coming to terms it is sure that all the building operations in this city, Brooklyn, and Hudson county, N. J., will have to be practically suspended.

BASEBALL.

Result of the Games Played by Professional Clubs on Thursday.

National league games on Thursday resulted as follows: At Cincinnati—Chicago, 7; Cincinnati, 4. At Boston—Philadelphia, 13; Boston, 9. At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh, 4; Cleveland, 3 (ten innings). At New York—Brooklyn, 8; New York, 2. During the game at Cincinnati Umpire Powers fined Mullane, the Cincinnati pitcher, $25 for abusing him on account of a decision. At the close of the game Mullane renewed his abuse and followed it up by striking Powers in the face with his clenched fist. Powers did not resent the blow, but increased the fine to $250, and will ask for Mullane's suspension by the league.

American association: At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 13; Columbus, 6. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 10; Louisville, 4. At Philadelphia—Boston, 23; Athletic, 7. At Baltimore—Baltimore, 9; Washington, 8 (eleven innings).

Western association: At Denver—Denver, 5; St. Paul, 4. At Omaha—Minneapolis, 6; Omaha, 3. At Kansas City—Kansas City, 12; Milwaukee, 9. At Lincoln—Sioux City, 9; Lincoln, 7.

The season of the Illinois-Iowa league opened on Thursday. Games resulted as follows: At Cedar Rapids—Rockford, 10; Cedar Rapids, 6. At Ottumwa—Ottawa, 6; Ottumwa, 3. At Davenport—Davenport, 10; Aurora, 1. At Quincy—Quincy, 17; Joliet, 3.

CONFIDENCE RESTORED.

Arrangements Made to Settle All Outstanding Trades with "Old Hutch."

CHICAGO, May 1.—About one minute before business commenced on the board of trade Thursday Secretary Stone made the announcement from the gallery that all open trades with B. P. Hutchinson were to be transferred to C. B. Congdon. Confidence immediately took the place of a very general fear which had existed amongst the members, who with a continuation of yesterday's uncertainty expected further complications in their business. The transfer to Mr. Congdon of such trades as are still open with Mr. Hutchinson is simply in the nature of a guarantee that no one shall suffer pecuniarily from the absence of the old speculator.

Mr. Congdon said to a reporter: "I have not yet gone far enough into Mr. Hutchinson's affairs to be able to make any positive statements. From what I have seen so far of the condition of Mr. Hutchinson's affairs I am convinced that he will not only be able to settle dollar for dollar, but will have quite a snug little surplus left."

SHOT THREE PERSONS.

A Miner Does Deadly Work in a Quarrel in Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 1.—Basco Dorrel, a miner, and John Finn, a saloon keeper, of Fleming, Mo., became engaged in a quarrel at the house of Thomas Stewart near Richmond, Mo., Wednesday night, when Dorrel began shooting. Finn and Thomas Cooper, a young bystander, were both killed and Mrs. Stewart was badly wounded. Dorrel escaped.

Death of an Indiana Ex-Judge.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., May 1.—Judge Joseph Brackenridge, for the last twenty years solicitor for the Pennsylvania company for the state of Indiana, died Thursday morning, after a sickness of two weeks. His death was caused by disease of the stomach. Judge Brackenridge was one of the leading attorneys of the state and has filled many important judicial positions.

Politics in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 1.—The leaders of the Iowa third party have issued a call for a state convention to be held in this city June 3.

The Iowa democratic state central committee met here Thursday and decided to hold the next state convention in Ottumwa June 24.

A Damaging Storm.

BRYAN, O., May 1.—A terrific rain, hail and windstorm visited this place Thursday afternoon. Hardly a single house escaped without some damage. It is thought the peach, pear and cherry crops will be ruined.

A Wrong Diagnosis.

Doctor Hittermise—From a careful examination I am convinced that your everyday food contains too much matter of an acid nature. You should eat all the sweet things you can get hold of. What's your business?

The Patient—Shure, Oi've been molasses tester on th' dock below fr'six years, sor.—Judge.

VAST SEA OF FLAMES.

New Jersey Forests go Down Before Fire Waves.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES SWEPT OVER.

The Inhabitants of Villages in the Path of the Destroyer Panic-Stricken—Many Towns in Danger—Houses and Barns in Ashes.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY THE FIRE.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., May 1.—The fiercest and most disastrous forest fire on record in Atlantic county for thirty years was raging Thursday night in the vicinity of Conovertown and Port Republic, and the heavens were illuminated like noonday. In the morning the pines in the neighborhood took fire from a spark from an engine. The heavy westerly wind fanned the blaze and the flames soon spread to the large pines, and in a short time the whole forest south of Pomona was like a raging furnace. The air was filled with smoke and flying sparks, and amid the roar of the flames could be heard the thunder of the falling pines and oaks. The path of the fire steadily widened, and the flames spread in several directions, completely enveloping the cedar swamps. By a change of the wind the town of Absecon was saved from destruction, but the fire was guided from its old path into the midst of some of the most valuable young timber in this region.

Gradually the flames worked their way toward Conovertown, and by 2 o'clock p. m. had reached the outskirts of the town. What few men there were about the fields or on the streets seized branches, sticks or shovels and hurried to the woods, hardly knowing where they were going or what they were going for. A panic had ensued among the women in the town. They rushed about madly, asking each other what they should do. The fire had driven the men who were fighting it back almost to their own doors.

Finding the efforts to get the fire under control useless, the men turned their attention to their homes. The flames at this time were not over a quarter of a mile distant. It did not take long to remove their household goods across the street and down into the open fields. Hardly was this accomplished when the fire burst out of the woods and ignited the houses, which were soon reduced to ashes. A strong wind aided in the destruction. All the wooded land in the direction of the shore road was burned, and the fire worked its way then in a northerly direction.

At 5 o'clock the wind had gone down, which assisted the efforts made to get the fire under control. Still it was hard work, the water being scarce and many of the men out in the bay dredging for clams and oysters. The fire gradually worked its way to the town of Port Republic.

It is estimated that the loss in timber alone will exceed $100,000.

About dark fire broke out just west of Pleasantville. The house, with contents, of Wesley Abbott was destroyed.

By 9 o'clock West Pleasantville was surrounded by fire.

MILLVILLE, N. J., May 1.—Baileytown, which was completely surrounded by the forest flames Tuesday and Wednesday, has not yet been heard from, but it is thought to be all right, as the few people who reside there have had a great deal of experience with such fires and have undoubtedly saved themselves by "back-firing." The smoke from these fires has been so great as to obscure the sun in many places. Farmers coming into town say they drove for miles through clouds of dense smoke, through which they had to grope their way, although they were miles from the fire. One fire has already burned over 7,000 acres.

A fire was started in the forest below the Williamstown junction on the Atlantic City railway Thursday morning. Hundreds of acres of wood have been destroyed, but most of the farm-houses were saved. Toward evening the fire divided, and by night the main branch was burning furiously in the neighborhood of Hayes' mill, near Atco. Hundreds of men were fighting the flames and endeavoring to save the buildings in its course.

The other branch of the fire swept through the avenues in Chiselhurst. The section men on the railroad fought the fire all the afternoon. A fire above Crew road destroyed thousands of acres of small woods and a big scope of cedar swamp early Wednesday morning. This town and the surrounding towns are covered with a cloud of black smoke. It is rumored that thirteen houses were destroyed near Absecon Thursday.

SAGINAW, Mich., May 1.—High winds have fanned fires in the pineries and the atmosphere is filled with smoke. Five million feet of pine logs valued at $70,000 banked on Tobacco river and owned by C. E. Eddy & Son, of Saginaw, are reported to have burned Wednesday. Burlingame's saw-mill near Gladwin burned Thursday, and Cary Bros.' shingle-mill near Harrison burned Wednesday night. There are no signs of rain and hundreds of men are out fighting fire in Clare, Gladwin and Roscommon counties. Heavy fires are also reported on the Michigan Central near Vanderbilt and many thousand dollars' worth of logs and timber burned.

READING, Pa., May 1.—Destructive fires are still raging on Blue mountain. Fire on South mountain has covered an area 6 miles long by 2 miles wide. The air is still filled with dense smoke.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., May 1.—The forest fires continue to rage in this vicinity with most destructive fury. Millions of feet of valuable timber have already been destroyed, and it is reported that every sawmill on the mountains between Bellefonte and Lewisburg has been burned.

George Morofscheck, aged 6 years, was crushed to death at Ironwood, Mich., by a log which he and other boys started rolling down a driveway.

Hard on the Sufferer.

The Court—Where did she get the ring?

Complainant—I gave it to her. It was our engagement ring.

The Court—The prisoner is discharged. This is clearly a case of contributory negligence.—Jewelers' Weekly.

MAYOR ST. JOHN'S MESSAGE.

Mayor St. John's message to the common council delivered last evening is published in The Gazette this evening. The document is one the taxpayers of the city will be interested in, and it will be universally read. The bold stand taken by the mayor is in accord with the outspoken pledges he made the people during the late municipal canvass, and well illustrates his earnestness in fulfilling his obligations.

The mayor's utterances on license will attract especial attention. It was on this issue that Mayor St. John was elected by a good majority. The vote indicated clearly the sentiment of the people. A reform legislature robbed the mayor of his power, delegated that power to the common council. This was done in the form of a general law, but is well understood to have been for the especial benefit of the saloon interests in Janesville. Defeated at the election, but armed with this new weapon, the saloon men are making a desperate and determined effort to "down the mayor." The fight is now on, and will be decided Monday evening.

With all kinds of promises and pledges the saloon men are struggling with the aldermen to gain advantage. Their devices are relentlessly exposed by the mayor. It is now a struggle to see who is to govern—whether the call of the saloons, or the voice of the people will be heard in the council chamber. The people will watch the movements of their representatives in the council with more than ordinary interest, trusting they will stand firm and not bow to the dictates of King Bacchus.

SOUTHERN MARKETS ARE OPEN

Wisconsin manufacturers who are wondering whether United States goods can be sold in South American markets, will be interested in the report of an American merchant who went to Nicaragua not long ago to make a personal investigation. At Leon he met a number of leather dealers who were importing stock from Germany. He had been a manufacturer of boots and shoes for a long time in New England, and recognized the stock at a glance as American leather. He asked the dealers what they were paying for it, and was told that the price paid to the German importer was 35 cents. He offered at once to sell the same quality of leather for 21 cents, received orders from the merchants and filled them. A practical illustratrion like this is worth a column of argument respecting the possibilities of extending American trade with Spanish-American countries. There were the German merchants ordering American leather from Boston and then shipping it from Hamburg to the west coast of Central America by the Kosmos Steamship Line, and selling it there as German leather. The American leather-dealers had considered it impracticable to trade with that coast, and were allowing German rivals to sell New England goods there at a large advance upon their own prices.

Western democratic journals can learn a lesson from this comment made by the Albany Democrat: "Let us be just to President Harrison: he is making many sensible and timely addresses on his trip through the south and what is more, the people do appreciate him. It is not the part of wisdom to underrate the strength or popularity of a political opponent."

It is reported that hailstones marked with a W fell in Florida some time ago, and some local prophets said it meant war. Colonel Elliott F. Shepard, of the New York Mail and Express, has been thinking it over, and suggests that more than likely the prophets had been drinking something beginning with W.

The license question is not the only one upon which Mayor St. John dwells in his message. The systematization of street work and the preservation of thoroughfares are urged upon the council with a force that should command careful consideration.

Newfoundland is likely to be coerced. Unlike Australia she is too small to rebel, and therefore the English government can afford to ignore the threats of insurrection over the fisheries controversy.

Mayor St. John has pointed out a way by which the will of the people may be done. It rests with the council to see that this suggestion is not lost.

"No saloons in dwelling houses," and "no licenses to law breakers" are two recommendations of the mayor that will receive general endorsement.

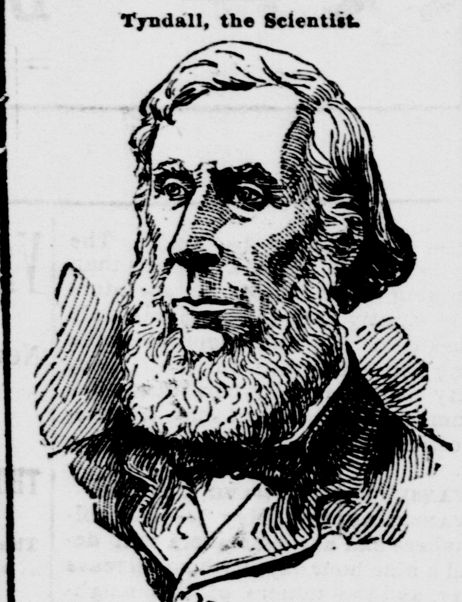
SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

Tyndall, the Scientist.



JOHN TYNDALL.

John Tyndall, whose admirers call him the "Poet of Science," is probably liked, or one might say loved, by more persons than any other scientist of the new school—the evolutionists. He was born at Leighlin Bridge, County Carlow, Ireland, Aug. 21, 1820, and was early noted for his proficiency in the exact sciences. After some years' work as an engineer he became a devotee of science. It is an odd fact that he is not only a descendant of that Willian Tyndale who translated the Bible in 1520-5, but received from his father the strictest religious training.

TENTS BLOWN DOWN.

A Tornado Tackles Sells Bros.' Circus at Tiffin, O.—Several Persons Hurt.

TIFFIN, O., May 1.—Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock a heavy windstorm in the nature of a cyclone struck the city, doing considerable damage to a number of buildings. On the fair grounds Sells Bros.' circus was exhibiting and here the effects were most disastrous. Fortunately the chief performance had closed and a supplementary entertainment was in progress before a comparatively small number of people. The menagerie tent was torn to shreds and leveled to the ground. About twenty-five of the animal cages were capsized, but fortunately none of the animals escaped. In the circus tent when the storm was heard approaching a frightful panic ensued and a wild rush was made for the exits. In the struggle a number of persons were trampled under foot and injured, but none, so far as could be learned, were seriously hurt. In the midst of the excitement the storm struck the tent and in an instant the immense canvass was torn to ribbons. In the crush a score or more were injured by falling timbers. Every tent on the ground was blown down, the main structure being utterly demolished.

NO CHARM FOR HIM.

Secretary Blaine Tells an Arkansas Friend That He Has No Desire to Run for the Presidency.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 1.—Judge Isaac C. Parker of the United States district court for the western district of Arkansas has just returned from Washington. While in that city the judge had an interview with James G. Blaine relative to the probability of Mr. Blaine's becoming a candidate for the republican nomination for president. Judge Parker says that Mr. Blaine informed him that under no circumstances would he permit the use of his name in the convention, that he would not accept the nomination and that he was for Mr. Harrison unconditionally. Judge Parker said to Mr. Blaine that it was his opinion that the convention would tender him the nomination whether he asked for it or not. Mr. Blaine replied that while such an honor would be unprecedented he had no ambition to be president. Mr. Blaine then pointed out the strong points in favor of Mr. Harrison and concluded the interview, saying the only chance the democrats had was to work the Farmers' Alliance in Kansas, Iowa and Illinois.

ILLINOIS.

The House Passes the Ballot Reform Bill —Other Legislative Proceedings.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1.—A petition was presented to the Illinois legislature from the lady managers of the world's fair asking for an appropriation of $50,000 for an Illinois woman's exhibit at the great exposition. The committee Australian ballot bill was read a third time and passed in the house. It will be sent to the senate at once. An attempt to suspend the rules and take up the compulsory education bill and place it on its passage failed. The effort to suspend the rules to consider the Merritt anti-trust bill also failed. The committee on rules reported a joint resolution for final adjournment on June 4. Consideration of it was postponed until May 13. The senate, by a vote of 22 to 17, laid on the table the Thiele bill to regulate telephone charges.

MICHIGAN.

The Bill Redistricting the State Goes to the Governor—The Capital Punishment Bill Defeated.

LANSING, Mich., May 1.—The senate on Thursday passed by a vote of 18 to 13 the bill drawn up under democratic auspices to divide the state into 100 representative districts. This measure and that providing for the choice of presidential electors by congressional districts having passed both houses now go to the governor for approval. The senate also passed the Bastone general election bill, an almost exact copy of the Indiana law. The house defeated the bill to establish capital punishment for the crime of murder—yeas, 44; nays, 44. The house committee of the whole agreed to the bill which gives $30,000 to the grand army encampment to be held at Detroit next August.

Shot Himself.

O'NEILL, Neb., May 1.—N. W. Pratt, a veterinary surgeon, 55 years old, committed suicide in this city Wednesday night by shooting himself through the head. The deceased came here last fall from Grand Rapids, Mich., and was respected and considered a sober man until a few days ago, when he began drinking heavily. Insanity, superinduced by liquor, is the supposed cause of the tragic act.

Detroit's Big Tunnel.

DETROIT, Mich., May 1.—The first sod of the tunnel between Detroit and Windsor was turned at 11 a. m., Thursday 1 mile back of the river on the Michigan Central line. The mayor and several aldermen from Windsor were present, but there was no general celebration of the event.

Noted Workers of the "Green Goods" Swindle Arrested in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 1.—J. H. Thomas, the chief of the "green goods" men who have been swindling hundreds of citizens throughout the country who were willing to buy counterfeit money, was arrested by United States Marshal Frank Hitchcock and Inspector Fleming of the post office department. The arrest occurred right in the marshal's office, whither the fellow had come on a daring visit to see what he could do for his friend William Tyler, who was arrested by Inspectors Fleming and Fitz last Tuesday. In the office at the time was James McMillan, one of his victims, who identified him, and Thomas was immediately taken into custody.

Poisoned by Drinking Water.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., May 1.—The entire family of Louis Marble, eight in all, are at death's door from drinking poisoned water from a well long unused. One child died in ten hours after being taken sick and the indications are that at least two of the other cases will prove fatal.

Closed by the Sheriff.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1.—The large wholesale grocery house of George A. Ballou was closed Thursday by the sheriff. Mr. Ballou confessed judgment in the circuit court in favor of the State national bank and John L. Davis for $37,000. The amount of assets is not known.

Rev. Phillips Brooks Elected Bishop.

BOSTON, May 1.—A convention of the Episcopal church in the diocese of Massachusetts has elected Rev. Phillips Brooks, of Trinity church, Boston, to the office of bishop, to succeed the late Bishop Paddock. The vote was 92 to 58.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the deceased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

LEFT HIS MARK.

New York's "Ripper" Traced by a Trail of Blood.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Inspector Byrnes has at last fastened the crime for the murder of Carrie Brown. The murderer is "Frenchy No. 1," who was arrested on Friday night, less than twenty-four hours after committing the crime, and who has been under lock and key ever since. On the night of the murder Frenchy No. 1 occupied room 33 in the East River hotel with a woman named Mary Ann Lopez. This room was across the hall from that occupied by the Brown woman and her unknown companion. From information in the possession of the police it appears that the murdered woman's companion left her some time before 1 o'clock on Friday morning. George Francois ("Frenchy No. 1") had been at one time a lover of the woman, but for some time had been insanely jealous of her. He heard her companion leave the room and shortly afterward he got up, leaving his roommate, Mary Ann Lopez, asleep, and, crossing the hall, deliberately strangled and then disemboweled his victim. This is the story of the police and is substantiated by the following facts:

When "Frenchy No. 1" had completed his murderous work he recrossed the hall and entered the room No. 33. In that room he left the evidences of his guilt. When the police made their investigation traces of blood were to be found on every side. The only chair which the room contained was covered with blood, smeared on it from the clothes the murderer wore, he having sat down upon it when he entered the room. The bed clothes were found to be covered with blood, the murderer some time during the night having thrown himself upon the bed. His stockings, he having removed his shoes to do the bloody work, were soaked with blood and his clothing was also covered with blood. On the walls and ceiling of the little room many small spots of blood were found, the man having evidently entered the room with his hands reeking with blood and snapped his fingers to get rid of it. Scrapings from under the man's nails are said by chemists to contain blood.

AT MONTEREY.

The Reception to President Harrison in the Old California City.

MONTEREY, Cal., May 1.—President Harrison's reception at this place Thursday showed no abatement of the enthusiasm with which he has generally been greeted on the coast. He and the other members of the party spent the night at Delmontes, from where a delegation of the leading citizens of this place, headed by the mayor, escorted him to this city. Delegations from Salinas and Pacific Grove also were present. On arrival at Monterey the procession was met by a large delegation of school children, who strewed their path with flowers and led the way to the schoolhouse, where the public exercises were held. Mayor Hill, of Salinas, delivered the address of welcome, and on behalf of the three cities presented the president with a solid silver card containing an engraving of the old custom-house, inscribed as follows:

"Old custom-house where the first American flag was raised in 1846; greeting to our president, April 30, 1891."

The president replied in a brief but graceful speech. Postmaster-General Wanamaker and Secretary Rusk also made addresses. The party then drove to Cypress Point, where they had luncheon and spent the day.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alternative and tonic; acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils, and gives a good complexion. Sold at F. Sherer & Co's drugstore; 50 cents per bottle.

IN THE YEAR 1872,

WHILE I WAS A PROFESSOR IN A CHICAGO MEDICAL COLLEGE.

DR. F. B. BREWER,

was my partner in practice. The partnership was dissolved by mutual consent, that he might enter into the traveling business with Dr. Price. Respecting the man as I did for his social and business qualities and for his medical attainments, I have kept watch of him since, and have such faith in his skill and ability, that after suffering a long time with heart trouble and general nervous prostration from which I failed to be relieved, although many kind physicians had assisted me in search of the desired relief, I finally wrote to my old friend and partner, describing my case. He sent me medicine at once, of which I have been taking four weeks. I feel it due him, as well as those that think of consulting him, to give this testimonial, which is unsolicited. I am 64 years old and have practiced medicine 39 years.

MOXIE: HALF A DAY OF NEW AND VIGOROUS LIFE IN EVERY BOTTLE.

A harmless, simple food that supersedes the use of stimulants and nervines: recovers from nervousness, insomnia, nervous and mental exhaustion, and effects of dissipation at once.

In 1883, while hunting for health in South America, LIEUTENANT MOXIE found the people using what they called FOOD PLANT as we do greens. Surprised at its effect on his own nervous system, he shipped a bale to Dr. Thompson, asking him to determine its character. Wherever used, the patient said: "It gives me a solid, durable strength and very good appetite." It cured anything caused by nervous exhaustion: it restored nervous people who were tired out mentally or physically stopped the appetite for intoxicants, cured insanity, blindness from overtaxing the sight, paralysis, headache, loss of manhood from excesses, made people able to stand twice their amount of work, mentally and physically, with less fatigue. It was found to be neither medicine nor stimulant, but a nerve food as harmless as milk. Women say: "My nervousness and exhaustion went like magic." For sale everywhere.

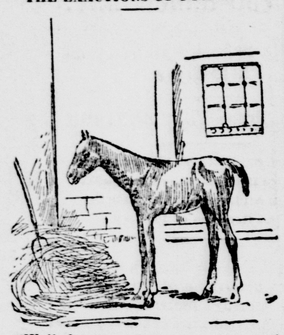
THE EXACTIONS OF POSITION.



"Well, I suppose being an aristocratic colt, I shall have to eat hay with a fork."—Harper's Young People.

Just the Same.

Dashaway—I went up in the country the other day to see a girl I have always been in love with.

Cleverton—And found her greatly changed, I suppose?

Dashaway—No; that was the most remarkable part of it. She was just the same. She still said "No."—Life.

True Christianity.

Tomkins—Mrs. Brown is a true Christian!

Smythe—Why, she makes no professions.

Tomkins—Perhaps not; but some one shoved a lead quarter on her yesterday, and she made no attempt to pass it on anybody else!—Munsey's Weekly.

A Fair Inference.

"It is said," remarked Mrs. Small at the breakfast table, "that the Zunis prefer tough meat, that they may enjoy the pleasure of mastication longer."

"Do you not sometimes labor under the impression that you are keeping a Zuni boarding house?" asked Mr. Watty in reply.—Jury.

Stern Advice.

"Is he really your rival?"

"Yes."

"Great Scott! If I had a rival that looked like that, do you know what I would do?"

"No."

"I'd give up the girl."—Harper's Bazar.

One or the Other.

Travers—I am going up in the country to-morrow and I don't know whether to take my ulster or my light coat, the weather is so changeable.

Dashaway—Why don't you take both?

Travers—Impossible! I have to buy my railroad ticket.—Jury.

Very True.

"It is a great deal easier to write a poem to the first snowstorm than to the last," remarked the poet.

"Why is that?" asked the friend.

"Because," replied the poet, "you are never certain that the last storm is the last."—Munsey's Weekly.

Use for Wedding Checks.

"Why, Maud," remarked the young husband rather dolefully, after they had returned from their tour, "that $1,000 check your father gave as a wedding gift along with his blessing is no good."

"Oh, Henry, I am so sorry. And to think that of papa!"

"Still, it's all right," he continued, when he saw how bad she felt over it. "I'll give it to you every time you want money for going shopping."—Philadelphia Times.

A Bore Rebuked.

Gus De Smith met a well-known bore. The latter said:

"I have just heard of the death of Judge Wilson. He was a man whom I esteemed very highly."

"Have you known him long?"

"For twenty-five years I have been very intimate with him."

"Poor fellow! His sufferings are over at last. There can be no doubt about his being better off."—Texas Siftings.

The Smoke of Castigation.

White—It is on record that during his long life George Washington never smoked but once.

Green—Upon what exceptional occasion could that have been?

White—When the old man got on to that cherry tree episode.—Munsey's Weekly.

"GETTING A BULGE ON HIM."

—Life.

Unsuccessful.

Cholly—What's—aw—the—mattah—aw—with Sissy Downy? He—aw—looks vewy much dejected, y' know.

Gussie—Ya-as; Sissy, don't y' know, applied for membership in Sorosis, dear boy, but they actually wouldn't have him, y' know. Said he was too effeminate, bai Jove!—Judge.

Letting the Cat Out.

Featherstone—Is your sister in?

Little Willie—Yes; but she's sewing a button on a coat and you may have a long time to wait.

"I don't see why? It shouldn't take long to sew a button on a coat."

"It does when there's a man in it."—Clothier and Furnisher.

Easy to Follow.

Pompous Author (to veteran editor)—What would you advise a man to do whose ideas are in advance of the times?

Veteran Editor (promptly)—I would advise him to sit quietly down and wait for the times to catch up.—Drake's Magazine.

Don't Throw Up The Sponge!

That hideous ogre, Giant Despair, often fastens his clutch upon the chronic invalid. Constantly plagued by dyspepsia, biliousness and constipation—nervous and sleepless too—what wonder is it that having tried in vain a multitude of useless remedies he is ready, figuratively speaking, to "throw up the sponge." Let the unfortunate "take heart of grace." Hostetter's Stomach Bitters can and will put a terminus to his trials. It strengthens and stomach, confers nervous vigor by promoting assimilation of the food, arouses the liver when dormant, and relaxes the bowels without pain. The ability to digest and assimilate restored, the ability to sleep follows. Nothing then can stay the renewal of health but imprudence. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, moreover, transcends all others as a remedy for malarial, rheumatic and kidney complaints. A wineglassful three times a day.

Iceland's Hot Springs.

The hot springs in Reykjadal, though not the most magnificent, are perhaps the most curious among the numerous phenomena of this sort in Iceland. On entering the valley you see columns of vapor ascending from different parts of it. There are a number of apertures in a sort of platform of rock. The water is 212 Fahrenheit, and it rises two or three feet into the air. A river flows through the valley, in the midst of which a jet of boiling water issues with violence from a rock raised but a few feet above the ice cold water of the river.

Not far from this is the grotto or cave of Surt, which is so large that no one has penetrated to its inner end.—Murray's Magazine.

Tattooing Among Women Esquimaux.

Some of the girls have their ears pierced just back of the lobe, where it is thinnest. They wear ivory earrings, some of which are carved with plain figures, while others have a setting of turquoise. Some of them have a string of beads extending from one earring to the other, suspended under the throat.

Tattooing the chin among the women is general, and it is kept up, so they say, because it has always been the custom. At the age of six one narrow, perpendicular line is drawn down the center of the chin, powdered charcoal being used in coloring. At about twelve years of age the line is broadened to half an inch, and a narrow line drawn parallel to it on each side.—Washington Letter.

Afraid of His Half.

In the early part of his career the late Baron Huddleston shared a clerk with a barrister of whom he rented a room, and an amusing story is told of a visit Bodkin once paid the deceased judge in his humble quarters. Bodkin strongly advised the future baron to compel the youthful clerk to be cleaner in his appearance.

"I do not much like to interfere," was his reply. "He looks upon T—— as his master, and, at the utmost, I can't claim more than half of him."

But Bodkin was not satisfied.

"At any rate," he said, "I would make him wash my half of his face!"—London Tit-Bits.

A Cheap Anesthetic.

Husband—Getting that tooth pulled hurt pretty badly, didn't it?

Wife—No. I just thought of all the mean things you had ever said to me, and it made me so mad I forgot all about the tooth.—Good News.

There are no lobsters on the Pacific coast, and the efforts so far made to carry them across the continent for transplantation have failed, chiefly because the creatures have died on the way.

How One Woman Manages.

She was a slight, delicate little woman, with a determined, fear nothing look on her youthful face. Her jacket was unfastened, her bang tossed back in a careless manner, and altogether there was a brisk, breezy look of the advanced woman about the slim little body. "I've been a business woman for three years," she said decidedly, "and have invariably found men in every way courteous and polite to me. The great mistake the independent woman makes in her relations with men is in letting them see that she is independent. Now, when I am with men I am the most helpless, clinging creature on the footstool, and they are always lovely to me.

"Men don't like smart, clever women half so well as gentle, timid creatures that appeal to their sense of chivalry, and the Nineteenth century man has as much of it as a mediæval knight if you only know how to find it. Now, when I was first married and my husband asked me if I was afraid to stay alone in the evening, I almost laughed, for I really thought nothing at all of going from Staten Island to Yonkers after dinner on business; but I managed to keep my face very serious while I told him that I was a perfect coward, that the dreadful shivers ran down my back every time I heard a little noise when I was alone.

"Result: He stays in every evening, and there isn't a queen on the globe that has as nice a time as I do after the dinner is over. Don't be too smart is my advice to women, or, if you can't help being clever and capable, never let the man you love know you are able to pick your own handkerchief up when you drop it if you want to be treated like a princess royal all your life."—New York Sun.

Working Jeweled Girdles.

A favorite occupation for those who lead a gay life, and so have plenty of opportunity for displaying such achievements, is the working of girdles, satchels, belts, epaulettes and fillets for the hair. These are made almost entirely of jewels, mixed in between golden and tinsel threads. The fillets are made up on a foundation of bonnet wire, the bands being double or triple to suit the coiffure of the wearer. The embroidery is executed on strips of colored satin ribbon only wide enough to cover the wire easily, allowing about a quarter of an inch to turn over to the wrong side, where it is held in place by stitches of stout threads carried across in lacing fashion from edge to edge. The bands may be lined with sarsenet if desired, but this should not be done if there is any chance of its making the fillet at all bulky, for it should set closely to the head, the hair being lightly puffed up between the bands.—New York Home Journal.

A Heavy Rain.

Young Inhabitant—I never saw it rain harder than it did today.

Old Inhabitant—Today wasn't a circumstance to a rain we had once at Grass lake. I took my rowboat out to paint it, and had it layin' on the ground bottom up, dryin', when the storm commenced. Well, would you believe it, the rain came down so thick that that ole boat thought she was in the water and went floatin' off bottom up!—Good News.

The Common Lot.

There is a place no love can reach,
There is a time no voice can teach,
There is a chain no power can break,
There is a sleep no sound can wake.

Sooner or later that time will arrive, that place will wait for your coming, that chain must bind you in helpless death, that sleep must fall on your senses. But thousands every year go untimely to their fate, and thousands more lengthen out their days by heedful, timely care. For the failing strength, the weakening organs, the wasting blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a wonderful restorative and a prolonger of strength and life. It purifies the blood and invigorates the system, thereby fortifying it against disease. Of druggists.

Failed to Agree.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 1.—A Journal special from Sioux Falls says that at noon the jury in the trial of the Indian Plenty-Horses for the murder of Lieut. Casey, reported themselves unable to agree and this being the second time they had so reported to the court, they were discharged. The jury stood eight for murder and four for manslaughter. This makes a new trial necessary which will probably be held at the next session of the United States court at Sioux Falls.

The Seventh Victim.

CINCINNATI, May 1.—Albert Snooks, the bridegroom who was poisoned at the fatal wedding feast in Louisville several weeks ago, died at the Burnet house in this city Thursday night. He is the seventh victim and his bride is still very ill, with only a faint prospect of her recovery.

Hanged by a Mob.

FRANKLIN, Tenn., May 1.—An unknown negro quarreled with a circus employe Wednesday night and then shot and killed Policeman Davis, who attempted to arrest him. A mob took the negro from jail and hanged him to a convenient tree.

Bismarck in the Lead.

BERLIN, May 1.—A supplementary ballot for a member of the reichstag was held in the Geestemunde district Thursday. Returns from fifty-five polling places give the following figures: Bismarck, 6,788; Schmalfeldt, 4,718.

Bad Fire at Quincy, Ill.

QUINCY, Ill., May 1.—Fire destroyed the organ factory and wareroom of A. H. Whitney & Co. Loss, $45,000, partially covered by insurance. Loss on building between $9,000 and $10,000.

No Fund for the Fair.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 1.—The senate has adjourned sine die without having acted on the assembly's amendments to the world's fair appropriation bill, which is thus killed.

A Record Broken.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The match race for $1,000 a side, 6½ furlongs, between Rinfax of the Undine stables and Geraldine of the Maltese Valla stables was won by Rinfax Thursday in 1:20¼, breaking the record.

STATE OF WISCONSIN—CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY—I. W. Seymour plaintiff vs. Mary E. Early, Mary Early, Julia Early, Eliza Early, Catherine Early, and William Early, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of and pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure and sale, entered in the above entitled action on the 29th day of March A. D., 1890, in the circuit court for Rock county, Wisconsin, in favor of the above named plaintiff and against the above named defendants, I will on Friday, the 12th day of June, 1891, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the front door of the postoffice in the city of Beloit in said Rock county, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder therefor, all the real estate and mortgaged premises situated in said county of Rock and State of Wisconsin, in and by said judgment directed to be sold and therein described as follows, to wit:

A tract of land situate lying and being in the city of Beloit, county of Rock and State of Wisconsin, known and described as follows: All that portion of lot thirty two (32) in Jeffery's addition according to the recorded plat thereof, which lies east of Pleasant Hill road conveyed to the Beloit & Madison Street Railway Company, and now occupied by the Chicago & Northwestern railway, excepting and reserving about forty by seventy (70x70) feet in the southeast corner of said lot heretofore conveyed to David A. Gaffney and also excepting and reserving a strip of land sixty (60) feet in width off of the west side of said lot thirty two (32) which lies west of said railway company's ground, over, upon and along a strip of ground ten (10) feet in width, the center line of which strip of ground is described as follows, viz: Commencing at a point in the west line of Cross street five (5) feet north of the northeast corner of certain premises, which were conveyed by J. M. Reynolds and wife to David A. Gaffney by deed, which is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Rock county, Wisconsin, in Volume 70, of deeds on page 160, and point being in the east line of lot number thirty two of Jeffery's addition to Beloit and two feet north of the southeast corner thereof, thence east on a line parallel with Cross street and so produced, to the east line of said lot thirty two, (32) to the west bounds of the land conveyed by the Chicago & Northwestern railway company of Wisconsin to said railway company, and it is agreed that the grantee may build a switch track upon the strip of land hereby conveyed, with the right to keep the same in repair, with the privilege of using the same in connection with the railway of the grantee, and the grantee shall pay the grantor the sum of $100 therefor.

Dated April 21, 1891.

The Council Postpones Its Action Until Monday.

BOTH SIDES ARE FEARFUL.

Mayor St. John Announces His Committees And Expresses His Views on the Saloon Question Without Reservation—Dr. O P. Robinson Health Officer.

Every seat in the council chamber was occupied last evening by citizens, who were interested in the license question.

They anticipated action, but were disappointed, the council postponing all action on that question until Monday evening. The high license advocates were well repaid for attending the council meeting, however, by listening to the reading of Mayor St. John's bold utterance on this question. His message gave fresh proof that the confidence placed in him will not be betrayed.

All the aldermen answered to their names except Alderman McLean, who came in tardy. Previous to reading his message, the mayor announced the following standing committee for the year:

Finance—Alds. McKey, Brownell and McLean.
Judiciary—Alds. Vankirk, Trulson and Child.
Police—Alds Conger, McKey and Childs.
Fire and Water—Alds. Childs, Trulson, Vankirk, Brownell and Sennett.
Printing—Alds. Trulson, McKey and Child.
License—Alds. Child, Brownell and McKey.
Schools—Alds. McLean, Trulson, McKey, Childs and Child.
Manufacturing—Alds. Sennett, McLean and Conger.
Gas—Alds. Childs, Trulsen, McLean, Child and McKey.
Highway and Bridges—Alds, Brownell, Vankirk, Conger, McLean and Lutz.
Parks—Alds. McKey, McLean, Conger, Child and Lutz.
Railroads—Alds. Lutz, Brownell, Vankirk, Trulson and Sennett.

Mayor St. Johns's message was as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE COUNCIL: The suggestion which I shall make to you in accordance with the custom usually observed, will be brief and only upon subjects of municipal importance. Probably the most important power delegated to the council by the charter, is that which permits the control of the streets of the city and calls upon the common council to make such streets suitable for the purposes for which they are intended. It is of great importance to the public that the streets and highways be not only maintained, but that they be kept in such condition and repair that they may be used with safety and convenience. The statutes of the state requires this as well as other municipalities, to keep its streets in repair, and creates a liability for damages caused by failure to do so. Neglect of duty has not only caused endless inconvenience, annoyance to travelers and damage to persons and property, but has been followed by numerous and many times large judgments against our city which the tax payers have been compelled to pay.

Whatever fault there may have been on the part of the council in directly failing to care for streets, I think that many times the fault has been more in not compelling the corporations who use our streets for their own purposes, to repair and replace the streets after they have done injury to them. A large amount of money is annually expended by the city in repairing its various highways, and it is frequently remarked that the result is not apparent to observers. If there has been any fault in this respect, it would seem to be largely owing to lack of systematic performance of street work A little work is done here, a little there, some in one ward, some in another, and while this may be to some extent necessary, still it occurs to me that some general system might be devised and that general system constantly kept in view while at the same time the necessary repairs might be kept up. Some such system was evidently in mind when it was provided in the charter that within ten days after his appointment the street commissioner should inspect all streets and highways of the city, and all things and matters appertaining to them, and report to the common council, recommending what ought to be done. This report should be made annually by the street commissioner, and if borne in mind by the council and acted upon as far as possible, some general beneficial result might be obtained.

I recommend to the common council and its highway, street and bridge committee, careful consideration of this subject. I recommend further that in caring for the streets, some system be introdused as to the material which is placed in the streets. It is not for me to suggest what the material shou'd be, but rather for the council to determine, and whatever method is adopted to see that by it the streets are benefitted rather than damaged.

I have spoken of the use to which corporations have put our streets in operating their different businesses. The rights which the city has given them are absolutely necessary to their existence, and are of great pecuniary value to them. Without the right to use our streets gas companies, electric light companies, water power companies and street car companies would be unable to do business. It is asking little of them in return for this benefit that when they displace the surface of our streets they should replace them, and if this simple request is not regarded, the legal remedies shou'd be unhesitatingly resorted to.

Careless, heedless performance of this duty should not be acquiesced in. Digging up the surface of the streets and loosely throwing the dirt back into the excavation to fall and settle as it may, is not replacing the streets. The street commissioner should examine the manner in which work of this kind is being done, and if being done improperly should report it to the council, and the council should take prompt and energetic action. A few examples would teach the corporations that they can not disregard the rights of the public in the public highways. A failure to observe these precautions has already resulted in serious and expensive litigation to the city. Beyond this the streets of a city are an indication of its prosperity, and nothing adds more to its attractiveness than well kept highways. Beyond the general provisions of the law upon this subject, the corporations which are using our streets have guaranteed, in obtaining their respective franchises, to perform the particular duty which rests upon them regarding public highways. These guarantees should be enforced by the council. No better illustration of that necessity exists than the condition in which the Street Railway company has left our principal thoroughfares. That company has disgracefully violated its agreement and obligation in that respect, and the common council has permitted it. Property has been damaged again and again by the existing condition, and life and limb has been in danger and the city treasury put in peril.

I recommend that the common council immediately require that company to do its full duty with reference to the streets it occupies, and if the requirement be disregarded that the franchise of the company be forfeited and the city attorney be instructed to begin proceedings against the company for damages.

What I have said generally with reference to streets includes sidewalks. Many of our sidewalks are out of repair and in a dangerous condition. The provisions of the charter permits this to be remedied without expense to the city. A careful inspection of all sidewalks should be made and repairs of all insufficient walks ordered enforced.

There are many places somewhat in the outskirts of our city where sidewalks do not exist and where they are much needed, and I recommend that in all necessary places the construction of sidewalks be ordered.

Of equal importance in a different direction is the enforcement of the excise law, which is largely intrusted to the common council. The peace and good order of our city very largely depends upon the observance of law by persons engaged in the saloon business. The enforcement of the provisions of the law and the ordinances has always rested with the common council, and with the common council that responsibility still rests. During the past two years the responsibility of granting license has been thrown upon the mayor under the provisions of chapter 521 of the laws of 1889. That power resting with the mayor, public opinion has naturally thrown upon him the burden of the entire saloon question. Having that power and bearing the responsibility, and being aided by the resolution of the common council, I endeavored to accomplish something by refusing license unless the applicant took both a wholesale and a retail license. While some engaged in the business had always taken out both licenses, the majority of them did not, and it being generally understood that wholesaling, in other words selling liquor to be drank off the premises, was commonly practiced by those who only had retail license, I sought to avoid this by requiring the double license.

The power which I then exercised I no longer have, as the law under which I acted was repealed by the legislature which has just adjourned. The entire responsibility rests again with the common council. The course, however, which I have adopted has evidently met with the approval of the people of the city. I therefore recommend that the common council require all applicants for license to take both the wholesale and retail license, and failing to do that, that license be refused them.

All the provisions of the law on the subject of selling liquor are well known to the persons engaged in the business. They are contained in the license granted; they are a part of it, and those provisions should be observed. They are as solemn and as binding as any other business agreement, notwithstanding which they are frequently and heedlessly and wilfully disregarded.

Annually many persons apply to the city authorities for license, the provisions of which they have therefore wilfully violated. This is not only a disregard of law, but a violation of business principles. Such a person is not entitled to the trust reposed by the granting of a license. I recommend therefore that persons that have had licenses heretofore, and who have been convicted of wilfully violating the provisions of the law, be absolutely and unconditionally refused license for the ensuing year. I recommend further that license should only be granted to proper persons, and that persons who have kept disorderly houses should not be permitted to keep them under license. I recommend further that no license be granted for the sale of liquor in the building used as a residence by the applicant for license.

I do this because the practice is demoralizing to the community, injurious to the family of the license, and because it renders a conviction for a violation of the law almost, if not quite, impossible. There are ample provisions of the law prohibiting dice shaking, card playing and all gambling devices in saloons. Regarding these as the chief tributary to the saloon evils, I recommend the enforcement of the law against them. Such enforcement would prevent much harm now done by what is known as saloon loafing.

I further recommend that whenever a person holding the license of the city is convicted in court of wilfully violating that license in any way, or the laws in relation to it, that his license be promptly revoked and that no other be granted to him. It is well known that gambling places exist in our city, and that much harm is done therein, especially to the young, and I recommend the most strict enforcement of the law against these places wherever they exist.

It is unnecessary for me to speak of the value and importance of our city schools. Without recommendation on my part, I have no doubt the council will continue in the future to liberally care for them, and to in every way assist and support the Board of Education in its conduct of them. My own interest in and regard for them can never be questioned.

After the message had been concluded the council proceeded to business. Henry Hemming was elected assessor from the west side of the river, he receiving nine votes to one cast for E. H. Davies. J. H. Baloh received a unanimous vote for assessor from the east side. Patrick Riley was elected janitor of the council chamber for the ensuing year, his salary being the same as the previous year.

Alderman McLean moved that the clerk cast the ballot of the council for president, and that the ballot be for Alderman W. T. Vankirk. The motion was adopted.

Only one ballot was had for health officer, resulting in the election of Dr. O. P. Robinson, he receiving six votes; Dr. James Gibson three, and Dr. C. L. Clark one.

Alderman Vankirk stated that plans and specifications for the north pier of the Monterey bridge had been procured from Milwaukee, that the committe had received two bids, but were not able as yet to report anything definite. Further time was granted.

The city attorney stated that he had prepared the contract between the city and Charles F. Loweth, of St. Paul, for sewer plans. The contract was read, and the mayor and clerk were directed to sign the same.

Alderman Vankirk's order for a block cross walk across Pesse Court on the east side of North Bluff street was adopted.

Alderman McKey moved that the salary of the city clerk be fixed at $1,000 a year. Alderman Trulson could not see the necessity for this increase at this time. Nothing was said about it during election. The clerk received extra compensation for meeting with the assessors. He would oppose an increase at this time.

"I would like to ask the clerk what the perquisites of his office amount to?" said Alderman Vankirk.

"About fifty dollars a year," was the response.

The motion for an increase was adopted, all voting aye except Aldermen Brownell, Child and Trulson. Alderman Conger was excused from voting.

The council was now approaching the question of the evening, and it was evident that the body was evenly divided with the right bower in the hands of the mayor. The question of license must be taken up, and yet the aldermen appeared to be uneasy as to the best manner of approaching the subject. It was morally certain that five aldermen would stand firm for the double license idea of last year. Finally, under a plea that neither the city attorney nor any one of the aldermen were aware that the law taking the license power out of the mayor's hands had been published in the Milwaukee Journal, the official paper, a motion prevailed that next Monday evening be fixed as the first regular meeting night, and that the license question be deferred until that time. The council then adjourned.

'TWAS A DEADLY MONTH

Janesville's April Death Rate Beyond all Records.

THE OAK HILL INTERMENTS

The Grip Held Responsible for most of this Fatality. Although the Malady Took Many Forms—Names of Those Laid to Rest During the Month.

Not in all the history of the city has Janesville's death rate been as heavy as during the thirty days just ended. There were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery during the month, twenty-four—young and old. The largest number in any previous month since 1850, when Janesville cemetery books were opened was in November, 1881, when the prevalence of malarial diseases brought the number of interments up to twenty-three.

A large proportion of the deaths this month physicians ascribe to grip. It will be good news to many that this malady which has prevailed in the city to an alarming extent is gradually disappearing and where there were nearly two hundred cases a month ago, there are not fifty at present, and most of these cases are mild. A physician said yesterday that with all the trouble we had last year with the disease it was nothing as compared with the epidemic this year. The peculiarity of the disease at present is its tendency to develop pneumonia and similar troubles, which has proven fatal in several cases. The advocates of the microbe theory of disease claim to have discovered the bacillus of la grippe and if so we may expect before very long to be protected against its recurrence by inoculation. It is quite certain that the disease in its most pronounced form does not yield to ordinary medical treatment, and that thus far no specific for it has been found.

Sexton Scott, of Oak Hill, made his April report to the trustees to-day. The interments reported were:

April 1—Mrs. Elizabeth Francis, Janesville, aged 83 years.
April 2—Fred Thom, Janesville, aged 14 years.
April 3—Theodore Kendall, Janesville, aged 90 years.
April 4—Grace Bell Havens, Janesville, aged 1 year.
April 4—Bert E. Fowler, Janesville, aged 21 years.
April 6—Charles Lowe, Janesville, aged 3 years.
April 7—William Grubb, Janesville, aged 76 years.
April 8—Mrs. Starr, Chicago.
April 10—Nora Haufmann, Janesville, aged 3 years.
April 11—Mrs. Louise Brummond, Janesville, aged 68 years.
April 13—Cordon Shuman, Janesville, aged 47 years.
April 15—Mrs. Catherine Welch, Janesville, aged 67 years.
April 15—Mrs. Dolly Prichard, Janesville, aged 75 years.
April 18—Infant of E. Skelly, Janesville, aged 2 years.
April 18—Mrs. Nancy Kleist, Janesville, aged 63 years.
April 19—Mrs. Mary Frost, Janesville, aged 93 years.
April 21—Reuben Prichard, Janesville, aged 76 years.
April 22—Henry Grove, Janesville, aged 70 years.
April 22—Henry Maine, Janesville, aged 13 years.
April 23—Infant son of G. Groat, Janesville.
April 24—William Powell, Janesville, aged 7 days.
April 26—Edward Calf, Janesville, aged 61 years.
April 30—Frank Sherer, Janesville, aged 37 years.
April 30—Lilly Eaton, Chicago, aged 17 years

TO-NIGHT'S PROGRAMME.

Rock River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F., at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Olive Branch Lodge No. 36, Ancient Order United Workmen at Liberty Hall.

People's Dodge No. 460, Independent Order of Good Templars, at lodge room in Court Street M. E. church.

"SEA KING" WELL-LIKED.

Warm Praise For To-morrow Night's Attraction at the Myers.

The Sea King will hold the boards at the opera house to-morrow night. The piece was first presented in Philadelphia and the Inquirer says of it:

The audience was a critical one. It gave the composer and the overture a friendly but not too cordial round of applause, but as the play proceeded it grew more enthusiastic, and finally demanded of several numbers double and triple encores. At the close of the first act it called the leading artist, composer and author before the curtain and informed them in unmistakable terms that it was highly pleased with their work.

There are many numbers in the opera that will afford delight to real music lovers. The "Legend of the Sea King" is a fine piece of composition; the waltz song of the second act is brilliant, and the sonorous finale of the third act is as marvelous as anything that Mr. Stahl has ever written. All the choruses have a swing about them, and there is a quartette in the second act that is well worth listening to. There is also a charming lullaby, "Close Your Eyelids," that is sure to become the rage among amateur vocalists and piano players. There are three or four topical songs that are spirited and taking, and they were all well sung last night.

CROFT'S QUERY ANSWERED.

Horace E. McElroy Amends the County Clerk's Placard.

County Clerk Croft found a pair of old spectacles in his office the other day, and hung them up with a card which read:

WHO LOST THESE?

This morning Horace McElroy came in, looked at the spectacles and passed out.

Then Treasurer Burdick came in. When he saw the placard he nearly exploded with laughter. Horace had changed the placard, and it read:

WHO LOST THESE?
Tom Croft did, but the blamed dude is too proud to say so.

Croft is now looking for McElroy, armed with the great seal of the county.

The benefit dance for Mrs. Albert Lightfoot was given at Liberty hall last evening and was largely attended. The proceeds made a very snug sum. Tuckwood's orchestra furnished the music and the party did not break up until after midnight.

Miss Mary Fitzgerald and Frank Slater were married yesterday morning at St. Patrick's church by Rev. E. M. McGinnity. James Neland acted as best man, and Miss Kittie Grimes, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Slater will reside at Rockford, and left last evening for their new home.

The fire patrol team made a fast run in responding to the fire alarm this morning. People on the sidewalks along West Milwaukee street forgot for the moment that there was a fire, and looked with astonishment at the wagon as it rumbled through the streets. It excelled all exhibition runs.

The remains of James Neil arrived in the city on the 1:20 Chicago & Northwestern train this afternoon, and were met at the depot by a number of friends who were acquainted with Mr. Neil when he resided in Janesville. The remains were taken direct to Oak Hill cemetery for burial. The pall bearers were E. L. Dimock, H. Richardson, A. A. Jackson and Judge J. R. Bennett. Rev. A. H. Barrington conducted the service.

Statistics show that Chicago has doubted its population eight times during the last fifty years. Now that it has reached the imperial number of over a million inhabitants, it is certain to go forward, and nothing can stop the rapid march of its progress and a gigantic future is assured. The growth of the last six months has been nearly double that of any previous six months in its history. The tendency of increase is all in the direction of the suburbs. The purchase of real estate in or near such a city is always a matter of absolute safety and its increase in value may be calculated upon with as much certainty as the return of the seasons, there being a hundred and one causes actively operating to this end. Few things will more markedly increase the value of real estate than the rapid transit now being introduced in all directions. Costly improvements are the order of the day, and all the resources that wealth, the best engineering and mechanical skill can command are being utilized. S. E. Gross, the most successful real estate dealer, can offer property that more than any other is being influenced by the above conditions. Call on or send your address to C. I. Wickersham, Myers House, Janesville.

HUNTING A LOST WIFE.

Mrs. G. H. Wood's Mysterious Disappearance.

WAS SHE IN JANESVILLE?

A Husband Searching For His Spouse, Who Was Supposed to Have Drowned Herself—Reports That She has Been Seen Here, Gives New Hope.

Janesville officers have been notified to watch for Mrs. G. H Wood who disappeared from her home in Roscoe, Illinois, Friday evening, March 27. The roads being muddy at that time, she was easily tracked to the river, and on the bridge where her apron was found. There were no tracks leading from the bridge and it was supposed that she had drowned herself; but although a thorough search has been made the body has not been found.

Four weeks after her disappearance her friends learned that on Sunday evening after she left her home, an insane woman answering perfectly to her description was seen by two reliable persons on Sand Prairie between Rockton and Beloit. It was also reported that the woman had been seen in Janesville, but officers have been unable to find any trace of her, and they are of the opinion that Mrs. Wood either left immediately or that it was a case of mistaken identity.

The missing woman is described as being 5 feet 5 inches tall; weight, 115 pounds, age, 31 years; dark brown hair worn high on her head, dark blue eyes, full red lips; long narrow foot. She wore a dark brown wrapper made plain, shirred at the waist; a red coral pin at her throat. She wore no hat, wrap nor rubbers. Her dress was dark brown flannel.

Because the search for her body has been unsuccessful and because the description of the woman seen was so good a description of Mrs. Wood, it is thought that perhaps she crossed the bridge, followed the river bank and is now somewhere in Wisconsin. Anyone seeing a woman answering to the description given will kindly notify G. H. Wood, Roscoe, Illinois.

DEATH TO TOBACCO WORMS.

Cobalt Sprinkled on Jimpson Weed Said to be a Sure Remedy.

The fondness of the tobacco fly for jimpson weed blossoms will be taken advantage of by some Rock county leaf growers this year. It is said to be the custom of the tobacco fly, which lays the eggs from which the tobacco worm is hatched, to suck the juice of the jimpson bloom about sundown and then lay the eggs on the tobacco leaf. By powdering the jimpson blooms with cobalt every afternoon, experimenters have succeeded in killing nearly all the tobacco flies.

BELOIT MAN'S SUICIDE.

The Disgrace of Arrest so Preyed on His Mind That He Took His Life.

Printer's Ink Saved His Suit.

W. H. Colling was pricing a new suit yesterday afternoon. His had been stolen and bid fair never to be returned. When he told a reporter about the theft he rested easier as he knew that advertising—in The Gazette—brought quick return. His faith was justified. The clothing was recovered even before the paper was printed, and Colling now says printer's ink is "great stuff."

Olson's Villain Will Star.

Alfred W. Freemont, who played the part of the villain with the Ole Olson Co. will soon star in a company of his own. Freemont's troupe will present "777," a play which Chicago papers have complimented highly as a thrilling and successful comedy-melodrama.

Criminal Cases Will Wait.

No criminal cases will be tried by Judge Bennett until the jury cases are finished. The criminal calander was called this morning, but District Attorney William G. Wheeler gave notice that he would move the calander until the jury cases were disposed of.

FOUGHT A BURGLAR AT NIGHT.

Michael Egan Lands a Malefactor in the Sheriff's Hands.

Michael Egan's battle with a burglar at an early hour this morning will probably be remembered by both Egan and the burglar for some time to come. Egan held on to the midnight prowler until officers came to his assistance. The burglar was landed in Sheriff Hogan's retreat this afternoon.

The encounter happened in Beloit. Egan was awakened by someone trying to force an entrance to the Farmer's Exchange grocery store, conducted by John Meehan. Egan lives over the store and when he heard the man trying the door he hastened down stairs, and grappled with the thief. Then the struggle began. Egan grabbed the burglar as he was working at the door, and, though the robber struggled violently, held him until Night Officer English and City Marshal North arrived. The burglar had two companions who took to their heels and got away. The thief who was caught by Egan was used somewhat roughly by the officers before they could handle him.

John Meeham, the proprietor of the store is a brother to Patrick Meeham, of this city.

THE BAND PLAYED "O. OLSON."

And The People Who heard it Were Well Pleased.

An audience that should have been larger, laughed at the antics of Ole Olson at the Myers' last evening. The play has an interesting plot, in which Ole always comes around at the right moment. The specialty work was very good.

T. Wilmot Eckert has an excellent tenor voice, and his solos were very pleasing. C. F. Loraine has a good bass voice. Eckert and Lorraine both sang old songs, but were loudly applauded. The Eckert trio—Misses Emma, Berg, Mabel Eckert, and Mr. Eckert, sang several numbers in a very pleasing manner. The rendition of "My Old Kentucky Home" was very fine, and was applauded to the echo. Miss Marie Heath captured the audience in her songs: "Won't You Come Out and Play" and "Listen to My Tale of Woe."

FIRE IN A CHINESE LAUNDRY.

A blazing Roof Gives the Department a Brisk Run.

An alarm from Box 51 called the fire department to 207 West Milwaukee street this afternoon, that building being on fire in the roof. The fire was put out with one of the patrol fire extinguishers, the damage to the building being not over five dollars. The building is owned by John Casey, and was occupied by Lee Sing's Chinese laundry. The building was insured for four hundred dollars. An overheated stove and poor chimney was the cause of the fire.

THIS WAS ARBOR DAY.

Janesville School Children and Their Trees.

CLASS TREE FOR SENIORS.

Their Match Game of Ball Was Interrupted By the Fire Bells, But the Catalpa Was Set With All Due Formality Worthy to the Occasion of the Day.

Outside the public schools, there was no general observance of Arbor day in Janesville, although individual property owners in different parts of the city were devoting considerable attention to their shrubbery and gardens. There was a general scarcity of trees, consequently the demand was greater than the supply, and many who had contemplated planting shade trees this spring were compelled to postpone tree planting to a future day. Notwithstanding this fact, many shade trees have been planted in the city this spring, and many more have made arrangements to plant as soon as the trees can be procured.

Appropriate exercises were held in all the school buildings this morning, and at the conclusion of the indoor exercises each school planted a tree on their play grounds, the trees—elms—being furnished by the board of education. The exercises at the high school were quite elaborate, and drew together quite a number of citizens interested in the the school. After the exercises the senior class planted a handsome catalpa as their class tree on the high school ground, this being done with considerable formal ceremony. Following this the Jefferson school planted their hardy elm. Then the boys invited the young ladies to the ball grounds to witness a game of base ball, but before the umpire had called "play-ball," the fire bells were clanging their notes of of warning, and the Jefferson boys and girls alike were last seen hurriedly decending quality hill, anticipating a conflagration down in the valley.
